

Terms & conditions of use for Applicants

The Farm Army website is an online matching service platform (Platform) managed by Rural Aid Ltd (Rural Aid) that allows people in rural and regional communities, whether Organisations or Individuals, to advertise job opportunities (paid or volunteer) (Opportunities). The Platform also allows Applicants to indicate an interest in the Platform and receive updates regarding Opportunities.

By using the Platform, you agree that, to the greatest extent permitted by law, Rural Aid shall have no liability whatsoever to you as a result of making your details available to any Organisation or Individual who may take part, avail themselves or be involved in the Platform or an Opportunity identified through the Platform.

You acknowledge that so far as you are linked with any Organisation or Individual as part of the Platform, you will make your own assessment to determine whether such Organisation or Individual and its requirements are appropriate for your needs and skills.

You affirm that your interest in applying for an Opportunity through the Platform is based on personal choice and is undertaken freely. If the Opportunity is a Volunteer Position, you confirm that you have no expectation of monetary reward.

By using the Platform, you understand that listed Organisations and Individuals are independent of Rural Aid, are responsible for their own actions and are not agents of Rural Aid. Neither is Rural Aid acting as an agent of Organisations, Individuals or Applicants. Whilst listed Organisations and Individuals have indicated to Rural Aid when they have insurance or volunteer insurance (as relevant), Rural Aid cannot and does not warrant this, and you agree to substantiate this with Organisations and Individuals before accepting an Opportunity. Organisations or Individuals who have indicated they are uninsured have their Opportunities marked as not maintaining Public Liability and/or Volunteer Personal Accident insurance and Applicants are informed that they will not be covered and will be engaging in roles with uninsured Organisations or Individuals at their own risk.

1. The terms & conditions

- a. Please read these terms and conditions carefully as they apply to your use of this Platform. By using this Platform you agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.
- b. We may revise these terms and conditions from time to time by updating this posting. The revised terms will take effect when they are Posted.

- c. Please also visit the Platform's privacy policy to understand how we use and protect your personal information.

2. Operation of Platform

- a. The Platform enables Applicants, such as yourself, to access Opportunities. These Opportunities will be Posted electronically on the Platform by Organisations or Individuals. Where you provide us with information in relation to a particular Opportunity, we will endeavour to provide that information to the relevant Organisation or Individual. The Platform may also include other information of a general nature, links to other websites and information. The information provided by Rural Aid is limited to that provided to it by the Organisation or Individual and Rural Aid does not, and has no responsibility to, review or verify the contents of the information.
- b. By using the Platform you consent to Rural Aid forwarding the personal details provided by you to an Organisation or Individual for the sole purpose of pursuing an Opportunity with the registered Organisation or Individual. You permit Rural Aid to use such data for subsequent follow-up for research and statistical analysis.
- c. While we technically operate the Platform, we exercise no editorial control over much of the Content on the Platform, and in most cases the Content on the Platform is provided by other persons, such as Organisations or Individuals and other third parties (Third Party Content).
- d. The Platform only seeks to match your interests in pursuing Opportunities with similar Opportunities offered by Organisations or Individuals. Where such similarities exist, we will provide the information you Post on the Platform to one or more Organisations or Individuals. Those Organisations or Individuals will then contact you directly and it is the responsibility of you and the Organisation or Individual to determine whether you both wish to pursue the Opportunity.
- e. Your correspondence or dealings with any Organisation or Individual or any other third parties are solely between you and those Organisations or Individuals or third parties. We make no recommendation in relation to the appropriateness of any Opportunity.
- f. We do not contract with you and are not responsible in any way for any legal or other requirements relating to any Opportunity. You agree that, to the maximum extent permitted by law, Rural Aid will not be liable or responsible for any loss or damage (including any indirect, economic, special or consequential loss or damage, or any loss of revenue or profit) suffered or incurred by you as a result of, arising out of or in connection with your dealings with an Organisation or Individual whether in the course of undertaking the Opportunity or otherwise. Rural Aid is not responsible for the operations or conduct of registered Organisations or Individuals and/or Applicants referred to those organisations.

When applying for an Opportunity which is a paid position, you are responsible for making enquiries with the Organisation or Individual in relation to the wage and conditions offered. To the extent you have obligations under the FWA and all Applicable Laws, you must also comply with such obligations. You agree that Rural Aid is not your employer or agent and owes no duties or obligations to you under the FWA or other Applicable Laws in respect of any Opportunity you may accept with an Organisation or Individual.
- h. If you accept an Opportunity, the Organisation or Individual who you work for may have certain obligations to you under the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (Qld) (WHS Act). The WHS Act imposes an obligation on persons conducting a business or undertaking to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety of a worker while the worker is at work. The Organisation or Individual may owe you this obligation even if you are working in an unpaid Volunteer Position. We encourage you to read further into your rights when pursuing an Opportunity. More information is available here. A guide to how the WHS Act applies to volunteer workers is available here. You should comply, and you should also ensure that any Organisation or Individual you may accept an Opportunity with complies, with all local, State and Federal Applicable Laws, regulations and guidance relating to the Covid-19 pandemic. You agree that Rural Aid is in no way responsible or liable should you contract Covid-19 in undertaking an Opportunity or otherwise.
- i. You accept responsibility to check the currency and scope of cover of the Organisation's or Individual's insurance policies before starting work (whether paid or unpaid). You are aware that if you are applying for an Opportunity with an Organisation or Individual with part or no insurance, Rural Aid will not be held responsible in the case of an insurance claim.

Definition & principles of volunteering

Advertisers of Volunteer Positions on this Platform must adhere to the following definitions and principles.

Under Farm Army's Terms and Conditions, an Opportunity can be either a paid position or a Volunteer Position. A Volunteer Position is undertaken through Volunteering, which is generally defined as working without the expectation of payment or financial reward. It is an activity that can occur in any setting and has the following characteristics:

- It has a direct benefit to the community and the volunteer (whether the benefit is tangible or intangible);
- It is undertaken by choice;¹ and
- It is unpaid.² However, the volunteer may receive reasonable or appropriate reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred that are associated with the role, and/or may receive a monetary or other incentive/reward.³

1. Choice is an act of selecting or making a decision when faced with two or more possibilities. Typically, the law considers that where the work arrangements carry moral obligations and are motivated by the volunteer's altruism (rather than by legal obligations), this is more likely to constitute volunteer work.
2. The definition of a paid employee is set out in the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth).
3. A direct monetary or other incentive/reward could include a tangible item such as a movie ticket or an enabling amount of money, for example a living allowance. The provision of accommodation, meals and the use of facilities by an Organisation or Individual does not necessarily affect the 'unpaid' status of the work done.
4. If you are unsure whether a particular Opportunity constitutes volunteering you should seek independent legal advice to ensure you comply with your legal obligations.
